

Types of violations

- A. General violations
- B. Educational and administrative violations
- C. Political violations
- D. Moral violations

General violations

1. Threats, bribery, insults, obscenities, defamation, slander, slander and publication of lies.
2. Assault
3. Forging or presenting any fake document, stamp, signature and title or using them (either written or software)
4. Theft
5. Accepting or giving bribes or fraud, betrayal of trust or damage
6. Betrayal of trust or damage
7. Keeping, carrying, buying and selling or using weapons
8. Overseeing (committing) and participating in intentional homicide
9. Computer, telecommunication and virtual violations

Educational and administrative violations:

1. Cheating in tests or educational activities
2. Fraud in research activities
3. Fraud in the preparation of scientific works and the use of fraudulent works
4. Sending someone else in your place in the exam
5. Stealing, buying, selling or disclosing questions or exam papers
6. Disrupting, interrupting or disrupting all university affairs and programs
7. Clinical violations in educational-therapeutic centers

Political violations

1. Giving false information or deliberately concealing facts about oneself, warring, corrupt groups or people related to them.
2. Support or propaganda in favor of atheistic groups and schools (in real or virtual space)
3. Membership in militant, corrupt, atheist or deviant sects
4. Insulting Islamic or national rituals and sacred things, the official religions of the country or committing acts against the system of the Islamic Republic (such as obscenity and using obscene words verbally or in writing, through slogans, spreading announcements and cyberspace, etc.)
5. Creating and participating in chaos

Moral violations

1. Using addictive substances (narcotics, hallucinogens, psychedelics) or using alcoholic beverages
2. Holding a meeting and inviting others to use addictive substances or use alcoholic beverages (or participation or cooperation in this regard)
3. Addiction to addictive substances or alcoholic beverages
4. Keeping, buying and selling, producing or distributing addictive substances or alcoholic beverages
5. Committing gambling and committing it
6. Buying and selling or distributing gambling machines

7. Using any toys or unauthorized media products
8. Non-observance of Islamic clothing or clothing regulations announced by the ministers
9. Non-observance of student affairs
10. Non-observance of Shari standards in connection with non-mahram
11. Having an illicit relationship (without acting against chastity)
12. Participating in an illegal meeting
13. Doing an indecent act

Separation of punishments

1. Verbal summons and warning without inclusion in the student's disciplinary file
2. Written warning without inclusion in the student's disciplinary file
3. Written warning and inclusion in the student's disciplinary file
4. Written reprimand and inclusion in the student's disciplinary file
5. Giving a score of 0.25 In the lesson, exam or assignments related to the violation
6. Deprivation of welfare facilities of the university such as loans, dormitory, food, etc. is from one month to the remaining period of study.
7. Receiving damages from the student in cases where the violation has caused losses to the university or the treasury (back to the regulations).

8. Temporary ban from studying for one half year or from 1 to 6 months without counting years
9. Temporary ban from studying for one half year or from 1 to 6 months including years
10. Temporary ban from studying for two semesters or from 6 to 12 months excluding years
11. Temporary ban from studying for two semesters or from 6 to 12 months including years
12. Temporary ban from education for three semesters or from 13 to 18 months excluding years
13. Temporary ban from education for three semesters or from 13 to 18 months including years

14. Temporary ban from education for four semesters or from 18 to 24 months excluding years
15. Temporary ban from studying for four semesters or from 18 to 24 months including years
16. Changing the student's place of study
17. Converting the student's academic course from day government to night tuition paying
18. Expulsion of the student from the university, while retaining the right to retake the entrance exam
19. Expulsion of the student from the university with exclusion from studying in all universities for up to 5 years
20. Revocation of theses and dissertations or academic degrees.

How to start handling violations

1. Plaintiff's complaint (the person who suffers losses due to the violation and requests the handling of her complaint)
2. Written report of officials and natural or legal persons and competent authorities inside or outside the university

Be successful and stable