

He explained that people need to have the courage to represent their opinion to have a more efficient meeting. You can focus on quantity and welcome all ideas so that people can express their ideas in peace and without any worries.

In conclusion, we could reach the best ideas by improving and combining them with other comments.

Hold Brainstorming Sessions:

It is better the meetings run by a manager. A person who has already informed people about the problems and have necessitated the coordination. The manager should be able to persuade the members of the meeting to express their opinions with courage and respect. Besides, it must be shown that members' abilities and values are respected. They can expand their knowledge with the help of other members. People express their ideas and if they do not have an idea, they leave it to the next person. It is better to select someone to write the comments (key points) so that ideas keep on a regular basis.

With this method, several recommendations can be received in a short period and using group creativities accelerate the process of improving the situation and solving the problem.

At the same time, it is important to provide a situation in which the members can talk and give their opinions freely, and everything should be under control and do not let people lead the meeting in the direction they want.

The concept of brainstorming has changed from its beginning until now. At first, people were allowed to talk about everything and they were completely free to express their opinions. However, over time people are encouraged to think creatively and use creative thoughts to show their points of view. The creative expression of ideas became more prominent. They can ask people to represent their opinions in the form of expressing a key point in writing (brain writing). The advantage of this is to give the ability to review more suggestions.

The general story of brainstorming is that everyone looks at the issue according to their points of view and covers part of the problem. The manager should be able to reach a comprehensive understanding of the main issue.
